Executive summary

Ms Fiona Corbet is a Registered Nurse with comprehensive expertise in critical care, emergency, and trauma management. She has extensive experience across all areas of surgical nursing, postoperative care, and medical nursing.

In her role as Deputy Director of Nursing at a large acute hospital, Ms Corbet is deeply involved in managing complex patient care issues. She is highly experienced in preparing Coroner's Statements, conducting critical systems reviews, and Serious Adverse Patient Safety Events (SAPSE) investigations. Her advanced clinical and administrative leadership is complemented by her proficiency in assessing and managing postoperative complications and complex wound care.

Ms Corbet's critical care background has sharpened her ability to manage complex cases, providing valuable insight into legal matters related to patient safety and healthcare standards.

As an experienced medico-legal assessor, Ms Corbet offers services for independent medical examinations, public liability matters, medical negligence claims, and total permanent disability (TPD) cases. She is also available for complex case discussions, file reviews, and telehealth assessments.
