

A/Prof Gordon Senator

Endocrinology

B.Sci.(Med), MBBS (Melb), MRACP, MRCP, FRACP, FRCP, FAFPHM, FACE

Southport

Expert Witness Training

National travel

Telehealth

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Science (Medicine), University of Melbourne Medical School
- Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery, University of Melbourne Medical School
- Internal Medicine, Diabetes/Endocrinology, Joint Committee for Higher Medical Training, United Kingdom
- Royal Australasian College of Physicians, Honorary Life Fellowship

Special interests

Diabetes – all types including gestational | Insulin pumps | Osteoporosis and metabolic bone disease | Thyroid, pituitary, adrenal, parathyroids & pancreatic disorders | Male/female hormone therapy and post-puberty gender dysphoria | Obesity

Experience

- Associate Professor, Griffith University Medical School

- Honorary Adjunct Associate Professor (inaugural), Bond University Faculty of Health Sciences and Medicine
- Honorary Senior Lecturer, Welsh National School of Medicine, University Hospital of Wales
- Foundation Member, Royal Hobart Hospital Department of Diabetes and Endocrine Services
- Honorary Research Fellow, Department of Community Health, University of Tasmania
- Secretary, Vice President, Australian Diabetes Society (ADS)
- Foundation Committee Member, Australian Diabetes Educators Association (AEDA)
- Expert Panel on Diabetes Member, National Health and Medical Research Council
- International Classification of Diseases (ICD) Co-Author, Diabetes and Endocrinology, World Health Organization (WHO)
- Counselor, Lecturer, Conference Convenor, International Diabetes Federation (IMF)
- Approved Pathology Provider, Commonwealth Department of Health
- Member, Professional Services Review Panel, Australian Government

Professional associations

- Australian Diabetes Society
- Diabetes Australia (Honorary life member)
- Australian Diabetes Educators Association, Foundation Committee Member (ADEA)
- American Diabetes Association (Professional Section)
- Public Health Association Australia and New Zealand
- Australian Society for the Study of Obesity (Foundation member)
- International Diabetes Federation
- Diabetes Epidemiology Research International
- International Diabetes Epidemiology Group
- European Association for the Study of Diabetes
- British Diabetic Association
- Australian Medical Association (AMA)
- Gold Coast Medical Association

