

A/Prof Heather Mack AM

Ophthalmology

BMedSc, MBBS, MBA, PhD, FRANZCO, FRACS, FAICD

East Melbourne

Expert Witness Training

Accreditations

- American Medical Association Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, 4th Ed.
 - Dermatology
 - Visual System
- WorkSafe, TAC & Wrongs Act Impairment Assessor (VIC)
- Joint Medical Examiner (VIC)
- WorkCover Tasmania Accredited Medical Practitioner

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Medical Science, University of Melbourne
- Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery, University of Melbourne
- Master of Business Administration, Melbourne Business School
- Doctor of Philosophy, University of Melbourne
- Fellow of the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Ophthalmologists
- Fellow of the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons
- Fellow Australian Institute of Company Directors

Special interests

General ophthalmology, with a focus on medical retinal disorders and complex medical ophthalmology | Electrophysiology assessment of vision | Clinical trials

Experience

- Facilitator/Assessor, AMA Impairment assessment for Visual System 4th ed (VIC) (2021-present)
- Medical Panels (VIC) (2016- present)
- Consultant, Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (2013- present)
- Board member, Vision 2020 Australia (2020-present)
- President RANZCO (2018-2020)
- Member, Victorian Surgical Consultative Council (2004-2011)
- Consultant, Insurance Commission of WA Catastrophic Injuries Scheme

Professional associations

- Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Ophthalmologists
- Royal Australasian College of Surgeons
- Australian and New Zealand Society of Retinal Specialists
- Australian Medical Association
- Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary Alumni Association