

Dr Abigail Harwood

General Practice Rural and Remote Health

MBBS, FRACGP, FARGP, MPH, DRANZCOG, DCH, GradCertOHSMgt

 Languages: Indonesian (Indonesian Malay)

National travel

Telehealth

Working with children

Accreditations

- Comcare Guide to the Assessment of Degree of Permanent Impairment

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery, University of Western Australia
- Fellowship of the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners
- Graduate Diploma of Rural General Practice
- Fellowship of Advanced Rural General Practice
- Master of Public Health, Curtin University
- Diploma of the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Obstetrics and Gynaecology
- Diploma of Child Health, Princess Margaret Hospital for Children
- Australian Certificate of Civil Aviation Medicine, Monash University
- Graduate Certificate in Occupational Health and Safety Management, Curtin University

Special interests

First Nations health | Remote Medicine | Telehealth and Virtual Health | Medical Education | Generalist Emergency Medicine | Generalist Palliative Medicine | Generalist Paediatrics | Generalist Mental Health | Clinical Quality and Safety and Clinical Standards

Experience

- Director, Clinical Training for the Rural Generalist Pathway of WA
- GP, Inpatient Telehealth Service/Emergency Telehealth Service, WA Country Health Service
- Medical Educator, Remote Vocational Training Scheme
- Staff Specialist Palliative Care and Palliative Rural Telehealth Service, Cairns and Hinterland Hospital and Health Service
- Casual Senior Medical Officer, Yarrabah Emergency Service and Babinda Multipurpose Health Centre
- Medical Advisor, Royal Flying Doctor Service TV Series
- General Practitioner, Gurriny Yealamucka Health Service Aboriginal Corporation, Yarrabah
- Chief Medical Officer, Royal Flying Doctor Service, Queensland Section

Professional associations

- Fellow, Royal Australian College of General Practitioners
- Member, Australian Medical Association
- Member, Rural Doctors Association
- Member, Stillbirth Clinical Standard Working Group, Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care